

United Way of Southwest Virginia Careers Expo for Youth

2017 School Participation Form

We are excited that your school district will be joining us for this event. The 2017 United Way of Southwest Virginia Careers Expo for Youth is an event for our region's 7th grade students to provide an experience of local employers to ignite their interests in careers within the region. The Expo is an event produced as part of one of our newest education initiatives: the Ignite Program, which bridges schools and students with employers and employees. Reserve your spot at the Expo by filling out this form.
